SPECIAL TO LA JOLLA LIGHT

NOTED LA JOLLAN TO ADDRESS ALUMNAE OF THE SACRED HEART ON MAY 31

Sarita Doyle Eastman, M.D., specialist in pediatrics and adolescent medicine with a private practice in La Jolla, will speak on the secrets of combining career and motherhood at the "Spring Supper" of the Alumnae of the Sacred Heart, to be held on the campus of the University of San Diego on May 31 at 6:30 p.m. She will be joined in the discussion by Kay Davis, member of the Board of Education of the San Diego Unified School District.

Both women are graduates of the former Convent of the Sacred Heart high school, El Cajon, conducted by the Religious of the Sacred Heart.

Eastman, a graduate of USD and of the University of California, San Francisco School of Medicine, is currently chief of pediatrics at Scripps Memorial Hospital. She is a Fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics and a member of the California Medical Association. The Eastmans have two sons.

Davis, a graduate of Seattle University with further work at SDSU and UCSD, has been active in education in San Diego since 1966. She is immediate past president of the Board of Education, San Diego Unified School District, and sits on the Academic Affairs Council at USD, the UCSD Advisory Council on Early Childhood Education, and the PTA board. An elementary school teacher until 1970, she currently teaches creative writing in City schools on a volunteer basis. She is the mother of three children.

Sacred Heart alumnae from any of the 200 schools conducted by the Religious of the Sacred Heart may obtain further information by calling Sister Virginia McMonagle, RSCJ, at the University, 291-6480, extension 4808.
